

CURRICULUM VITAE

Ira Papageorgiou

Ira Papageorgiou studied Linguistics and Political Science at the University of Glasgow. She continued her studies in Adult Education and Community Development and finally received her doctorate on migrants' Adult Education, combining the fields of her previous studies. She is a scientific collaborator of INE GSEE since 2007 and, as such, she has been involved in the design, implementation and coordination of national and transnational projects in the field of lifelong education. She has taught in both formal and non-formal education in the fields of language literacy, study skills and adult education. Her research has dealt with the issues of citizenship, interculturalism and the role of adult educators. She is also a tutor in the MSc of Adult Education at the Hellenic Open University.