

Curriculum Vitae

Jürgen WOLF

Jürgen Wolf holds a master degree in business administration from Linz University. After three years of professional experience acquired abroad, he started working in 2008 at BFI Upper Austria as a trainer for German as a foreign language and Educational Counseling.

He is Deputy Head of the Department for Cooperation with Public Contracting Entities. Mr. Wolf is expertized in conceptual design and the development of curricula and training courses. He is experienced in vocational training, especially with people of migratory background. On international level Mr. Wolf is responsible for two Erasmus-KA2-projects of BFI regarding Vocational Education with a special focus on the Dual VET System.