

CURRICULUM VITAE

Vassilis Siomadis

Vassilis Siomadis, Mechanical Engineering specialised in industrial management, with a great experience in the field of vocational training, employment and entrepreneurship.

He is responsible for European Projects of IME GSEVEE (Small Enterprise's Institute of the Hellenic Confederation of Professionals, Craftsmen and Merchants). He is in charge of planning, co-ordination and management of completed and transnational interventions of training and support of employment and entrepreneurship that are co-financed from the European Social Fund (Equal, Leonardo and Erasmus+ projects).

Since also 2001, he is Head of KEK GSEVEE'S (Vocational Training Center of the Hellenic Confederation of Professionals, Craftsmen and Merchants) training branch in the region of Central Macedonia. He allocates a 15-year experience in planning, coordination, follow-up and evaluation of training programmes of employers, self-employed, employees and unemployed.

He participates in various European projects related to apprenticeship, entrepreneurship, quality assurance of Vocational Education & Training, and to validation of non-formal and informal learning, and in various European Networks (e.g. European Vocational Training Association, Work based Learning Network).